Working Safely

Everyone needs to be aware of the basics of safety and health

Fact sheet

At IOSH we know that inspiring training in safety and health can make a lasting impression on people. When learning is a pleasant as well as stimulating experience, the chances are that vital safety and health messages will hit home successfully.

The Working Safely approach to safety and health training is exactly that: a high-impact programme designed to be fun and get people fully involved. One of the beauties of IOSH Working Safely® is its simplicity – the lack of complex legal jargon allows the training to focus on the practicalities people need to know to do their jobs safely and healthily, for them and for their colleagues.

Who is Working Safely for?

Working Safely is for people working at any level, in any sector, in any location worldwide, who need a grounding in the essentials of safety and health. It gives everyone an understanding of why they must work safely and healthily – and does it in an enjoyable way.

- what does the business gain?
- peace of mind from globally-recognised, respected and certificated training
- minimal disruption to working days and shifts – programme and assessment completed in a single day
- staff empowered by efficient and effective learning, covering all the health, safety and environmental basics.

Working Safely covers...

- An outline of occupational safety and health
- Defining hazard and risk
- Identifying common hazards
- Improving safety performance.

Memorable and thought-provoking facts and case studies from around the world reinforce learning. Each module is backed by scenarios from genuine work situations. The course includes interactive games and quizzes, helping delegates to learn in a refreshingly informal way.

Successful delegates are awarded an IOSH Working Safely certificate.

What results can I expect?

- greater productivity, from fewer hours lost due to sickness and accidents
- improved company-wide safety awareness culture and appreciation of safety measures
- active staff involvement to improve workplace safety and health
- enhanced reputation within your supply chain.

Working Safely is delivered by IOSH's network of approved training providers.
